

Fig 5.- Examples of commensal polychaetes associated to molluscs and crustaceans. A. Eunice sp. on Cerithium vertagus (redrawn from Gibbs 1969). B. Arctonoe vittata in the Acmaea pallida mantle cavity (redrawn from Britayev 1991). C. Antonbruunia viridis in the Lucinia fosteri mantle cavity (redrawn from Hartman & Boss 1965). D. An adult Hipponoe gaudichaudi and the attached young specimen (redrawn from Núñez et al. 1991). E. The position of two Hipponoe gaudichaudi inside Lepas anserifera (redrawn from Britayev & Memmy 1989). F. Circeis paguri inside a Buccinum shell inhabited by Eupagurus bernhardus (redrawn from Al-Ogily & Knight-Jones 1981). G. Nereis fucata and its host Eupagurus bernhardus (redrawn from a Christmas card by G. Thorson, drawn by P. Winther, in Dales 1957)

